I can't find anyone who fits 100% but this is the most likely match for George and Ann assuming R A is Rebecca Ann. Sarah Sells Cook is living with George and Rebecca in 1850 and then sells this property to George W. and Ann Sells in 1861 for $50 more than she bought it for 4 months earlier. Then in 1861 George sells to his father and mother for $400. Nice tidy profit! Where did Sarah get that kind of money? Divorce settlement? I can't find her divorce. If David died, then maybe his estate? I will look into that. But why buy land in Indian Territory? If/when I find the answer I'll add it to Sarah's chapter.

Description:

This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1860 United States Federal Census, the Eighth Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, age as of the census day, sex, color; birthplace, occupation of males over age fifteen, and more. No relationships were shown between members of a household. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to actual images of the 1860 Federal Census.
